Assignment #2 BLOG MY THEME

What to shoot?

Each Friday, I will post a theme. By the following Friday, you will be responsible for posting one image that fits within this given theme. As well, on or before Blog Days each week, you will need to comment on 5 different image. Evaluate these images, giving suggestions for improvement and postitive feedback.

These images will need to be color corrected and cropped to the given size. Photoshop manipulation (beyond color correcting) is optional, but encouraged for some images.

images should be no larger than 4" x 6" at 72 resolution
(horizontal or vertical orientation)

The general public will be able to view this blog. However, only the members of this class will have access to post.

Assessment

Your grade will be based on your efforts. There is a possible 198 points for this assignment. Following is the breakdown of points:

For each image (total of 15) that you post, you will receive 5 points.
15 x 5 = 75

Based on the comments and my assessment, I will rate each of your images from 1 (lowest) to 10 (highest).
15 x 10 = 150

You will receive 1 point for each comment that you post per week, not exceeding 3 comments.
15 x 3 = 45

TOTAL = 270 possible points
