

The Things They Carried Anticipation Guide

Directions: Rate each statement according to the Strongly Agree/Strongly Disagree continuum and then briefly explain your choice underneath each question.

1. Please your family and friends is more important than pleasing yourself.
Strongly Agree Agree Disagree Strongly Disagree

2. It can be better to be dead than to live with humiliation
Strongly Agree Agree Disagree Strongly Disagree

3. When fighting a war, you shouldn't feel guilty about killing an enemy.
Strongly Agree Agree Disagree Strongly Disagree

4. Feeling like you belong is more important than feeling safe.
Strongly Agree Agree Disagree Strongly Disagree

5. One should fight a war only if one agrees with the reasons why the war is being fought.
Strongly Agree Agree Disagree Strongly Disagree

6. It is more important to be liked than it is to be respected.
Strongly Agree Agree Disagree Strongly Disagree

7. It is easier to forgive other people than it is to forgive yourself.
Strongly Agree Agree Disagree Strongly Disagree

8. Fear of the unknown is a greater fear than knowing what you are faced with.
Strongly Agree Agree Disagree Strongly Disagree

9. When telling a story, it is more important to get the point across than to tell the truth.
Strongly Agree Agree Disagree Strongly Disagree

10. It is impossible to fight in a war without it changing you for the worse.
Strongly Agree Agree Disagree Strongly Disagree

11. You should not feel guilty about saving your own life rather than risking it to save someone else.
Strongly Agree Agree Disagree Strongly Disagree